

"Young Offender"

Rich Media

2017 painting - Airbrush, Pinsel, Spachtel auf Leinwand
Abmessung Höhe | Breite | Tiefe: 100 cm x 140 cm x 3 cm

Beschreibung: This work is build in three layers: with a spatula the construction and swing is prebuild and refined and worked out with spray colour and airbrush. Finally - and that takes all my courage - brushed with a harsh brush drawing of the figure, that brings it all to the point. I call this maxamlistic art.

Philosophie: Young peoples´ world is full of influences an fancies, but this is where our culture has drifted into: consumism and thrills of extremes - in protected sourroundings. The greenness nevertheless decides by consuming. The painting shows judgements and execution how the youth partly feels and behaves inspite of education and knowledge. Decadence? Mental survival? A new challenge in a world of rich media but few ethics.
